

The Presbyterians have a bachelor preacher.

You're a little too late To stand and meditate

Katherine liked to play tennis, so they say
She and the preacher played many a day.

They sang and played and had lots of fun,
And that is the way the courtship began.

"You
Love Me...
Don't
You?"

He said, "I've been gone a week my dear."
She said, "Seems like it's been almost a year."

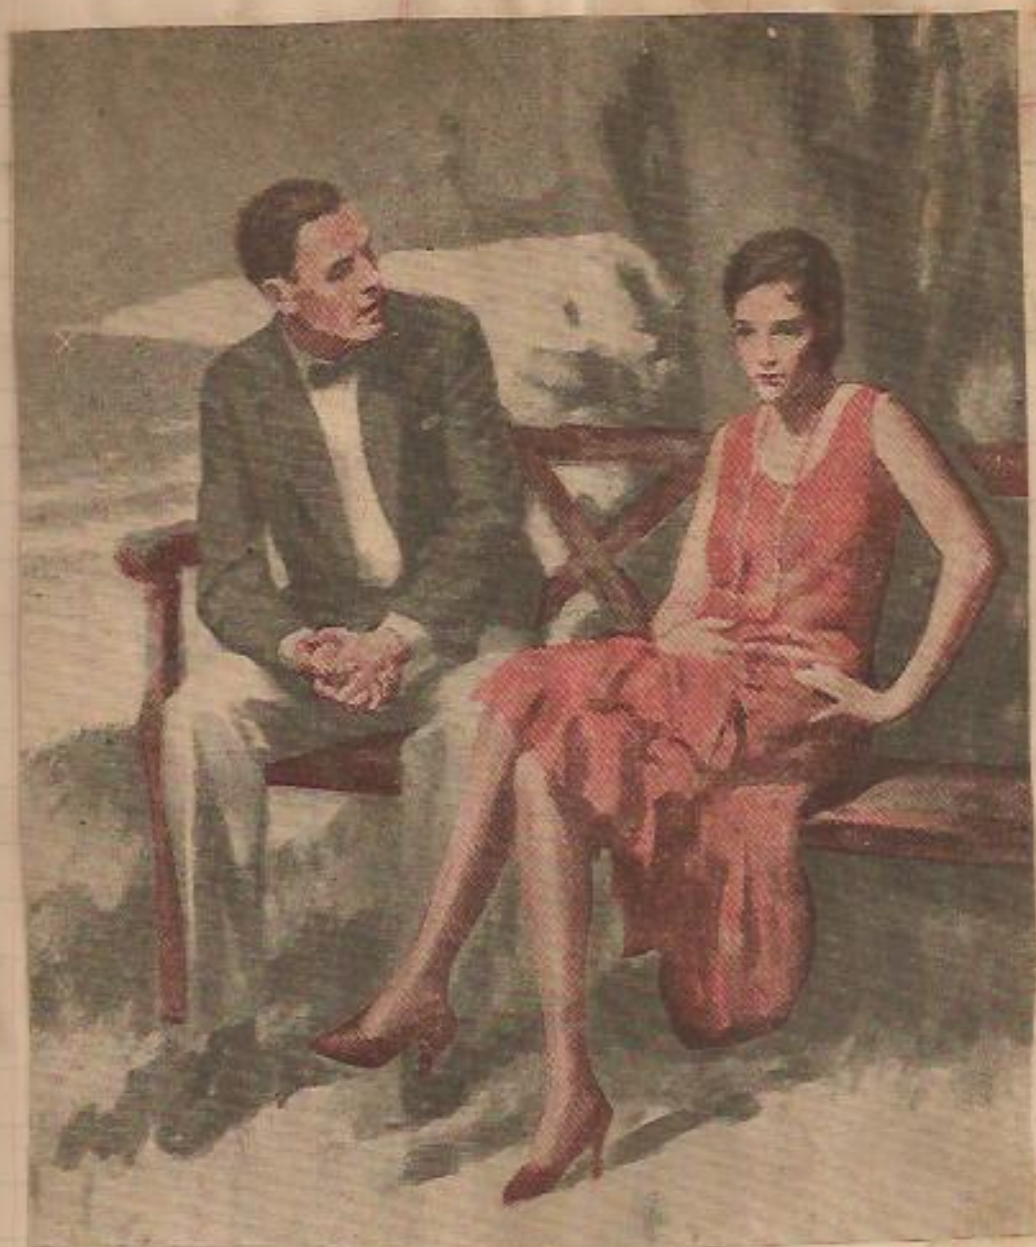

Here comes the bride;

My very first job I see at a glance
Will be to "dust" and clean up the maids.
To sew on the buttons and patch the pants

I'll try to fix something good to eat that is the way to keep him sweet

Their first quarrel.

She believes in making him work you see Even though a preacher he happens to be.

On a name for the first son, they could not agree
She wanted it Walter; He said "George" it should be -
It happened to be both of them you see -

Walter

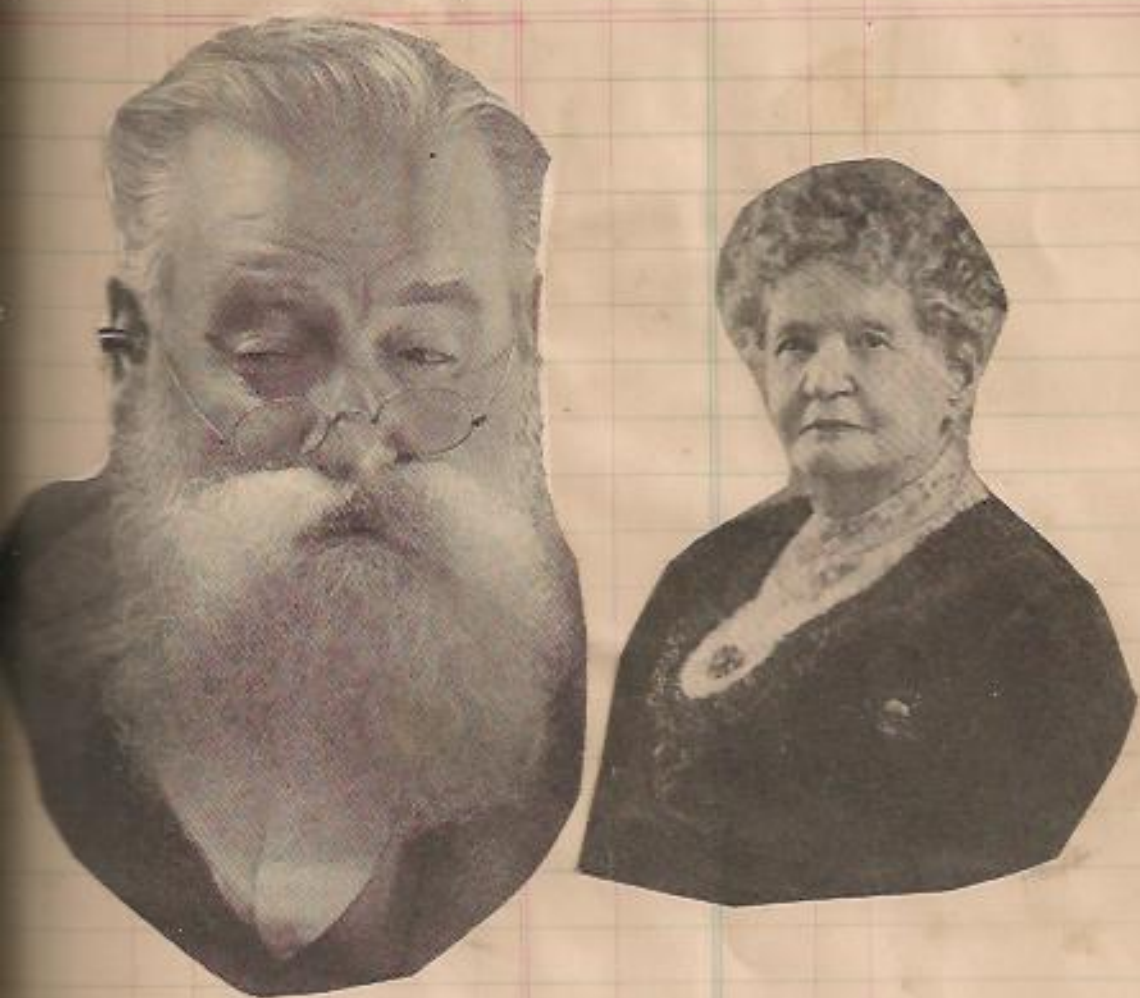

George

Now children dear, let's play some while we're waiting for father to come."

1972

Now each night so I've been told,
They sing "Darling, I am growing old."
